

Baha Mar Unveils a World of Flavors

First Collection of Diverse, Delicious Food & Beverage Offerings Debuts on April 21

NASSAU, Bahamas – Baha Mar, the soon-to-debut new luxury resort in Nassau, will introduce a world of flavors with a diverse collection of culinary offerings. From full-service and casual dining to pool-side and late-night bars, the assortment of food & beverage at Baha Mar will give guests savoring a Caribbean escape delectable options from morning to night.

The first wave of culinary offerings to debut upon the resort's strategic opening on April 21 will include Three Tides, a seafood-forward Mediterranean all-day restaurant. Executive Chef Brent Martin incorporates Caribbean and seasonal fish and locally sourced ingredients into fresh, inventive dishes such as Ahi Tataki and Grilled Octopus Salad. While at The Swimming Pig, guests can tuck into a modern riff on a British gastropub, complete with a wide array of draught beers and a full bar, for breakfast, lunch or dinner.

As guests journey poolside in the afternoon, Drift presents Pan-Latin flavors with specialties including empanadas and Peruvian skewers in a casual setting. Or, opt for upscale, accessible fare at Palms with sit-down beach-side dining and classics such as burgers, sandwiches, seasonal bento box creations and fresh Bahamian salads.

For an authentic Bahamian experience, the refreshing beach-side pairing Conch Shack and neighbor Daq Shack provide local favorites near the esplanade section of Baha Mar. Guests sip made-to-order, blended daiquiris with local rum, seasonal mangoes, stone fruits and tart citrus alongside fresh conch salad, all made or mixed to order from only fresh ingredients.

“We have created an incredible collection of distinct culinary destinations within Baha Mar so that guests have a wealth of options throughout the day to discover and enjoy,” shared Grand Hyatt Baha Mar Executive Chef Brent Martin. “Each one brings to the table a different taste and experience that we hope become fast favorites of our guests.”

At Stix Noodle Bar, authentic Chinese cuisine takes center stage. From handmade noodles to dim sum, Stix will feature traditional dishes for a sophisticated dining experience, as well as convenient take-out counter for casual dining.

In celebration of the former Nassau Beach Resort that graced the property in the '50s, Blue Note and Out Island Bar pay homage to the history of Nassau. Blue Note will host jazz musicians while offering upscale small-plate cuisine, house-prepared bruschetta and a craft cocktail beverage menu. At the open-air Out Island Bar, guests sip beverages pool-side with Bahamian classics such as Bahama Mama and the award winning Cloud Nine, an inventive twist on a local version of Sky Juice featured on the menu. At Churchill, a rum and cigar bar features a remarkable selection of the popular Caribbean spirit and an expansive, built-in humidor. Guests delight in cocktails at their leisure among the expansive selection of bars scattered across Baha Mar including H2O, Elixir, Bar Noir, and top shelf liquors and craft cocktails at The Lynden.

In partnership with local fishermen and farmers, Baha Mar will incorporate local staples across its restaurant family including fresh conch, grouper, and snapper, and Caribbean spiny lobster and land crab. Chef Brent Martin leads this culinary programming guided by a spirit of sustainability, attention to Bahamian flavors, respect to local techniques and the creative use of ingredients, sourcing local whenever possible.
