MANGO

A fruity tea, mango has always been a part of life in The Bahamas, whether as a delicious juice, a remedy for gall and kidney stones, burns and restlessness or plucked off the tree and enjoyed. In this tea, we bring a new way of experiencing this tropical classic.

SOUR SOP

Both the leaves and fruit of the Sour Sop tree have long been touted as anticancer agents. Sour Sop also has a history as one of the most delicious tea leaves in the Bahamas and can be enjoyed hot or cold. Often taken as an evening tea, it encourages good sleep, and is a wonderful way to end a quiet evening.

GUAVA

The guava tree is so jam packed with goodness, we had to use more than just the leaf in this tea! By including the fruit as well as the leaves, it's almost easier to list what it doesn't benefit. Filled with vitamin C & antioxidants, guava has long been known for its ability to fight ailments and its cancer fighting quality. even beyond its health benefits, mixing the fruit and leaf crates a fruity tea with flavor that can't be beat.

TAMARIND

From tamarind sauce to the candy tamarind balls, the widespread uses of the tamarind are favorites throughout our islands. Tamarind tea distills it all into one cup for you to enjoy. Lauded as a memory aid and supplement, this down-home drink will hit the spot and then some.
