MEET THE TEAM

Kevin Major Jr.

Racquets Professional

PLAY • DEVELOP • COMPETE • ENJOY

Kevin Major Jr. brings an accomplished competitive background and a passion for player development to his role as Racquets Professional at the John McEnroe Tennis Center at Baha Mar.

A standout Bahamian player from an early age, Kevin achieved the No. 1 national ranking across multiple junior age divisions before continuing his development in Florida. He later competed collegiately for Seminole State College, serving as team captain and earning national recognition in singles and doubles.

A proud representative of The Bahamas, Kevin competed as a member of the Bahamas Davis Cup Team across seven years between 2013 and 2023, making his Davis Cup debut in 2013. He was also part of the 2016 Bahamas team that earned promotion from Americas Zone Group III to Group II.

Kevin went on to compete professionally, reaching a 13.4 UTR, recording a victory over an ATP Top-300 player and achieving a career-high ranking of No. 316.

Now back home in The Bahamas, Kevin brings his competitive and coaching experience to players of all ages and levels. In addition to tennis, Kevin is also equipped to coach both pickleball and padel, bringing a versatile, multi-racquet approach to his role at the John McEnroe Tennis Center. His coaching combines discipline, technical development and a genuine passion for helping every player reach their potential.

BOOK AN EXPERIENCE TODAY!

For more information: tennis@bahamar.com